

Keeyawnia “K.C.” Hawkins was born in Virginia Beach, VA. She has earned both an Associates and Bachelors of Science in Criminal Justice and has taken a year of paralegal studies. She served honorably in the US Army, as a 27D (Paralegal Specialist), for six years and has worked with Veterans for the past 8 years both here in Texas and in South Carolina.

While employed by the South Carolina Division of Veterans Affairs as a Claims Representative, she was appointed by the State Director as the State Women’s Veterans Coordinator. Here in Texas she has worked in the Waco Regional Office and the field office in Temple, Texas as a Veterans Counselor.

In May of 2015 she was selected to be the Bell County Veteran Service Officer/Director of Bell County Veterans Service Office.

She is also on the National Association of County Veteran Service Officers training team, providing VA accreditation training and testing throughout the United States.

K.C. is the spouse of an active duty service member stationed at Fort Hood and the mother of four children.